

Marres

Visiting Marres with a group

Would you like to explore Marres with your family, friends or colleagues, book a group visit. Explore a variety of options. Marres offers tours of the exhibition with or without a guide. But it is also possible to visit the exhibition and take one of the special walks through the area. Finally, Marres offers a Full Senses package. The exhibition visit with walk (2) should be booked no later than 5 working days in advance, the group visit guided tour (1) and the Full Senses package (3) should be booked 10 working days in advance.

From 10 persons and more we apply a group discount of 20% on the entrance fee.

If you visit with a group larger than 10 people, always register first via receptie@marres.org.

1. Guided tour

If you wish to visit the museum including a tour by a staff member of Marres, you can book this option. Ideal for those who prefer a more guided and educational experience.

Number of visitors: up to 15 people per tour

Rate: Admission per visitor plus the surcharge for the guide (€60) per group of up to 15 people.

2. Exhibition visit + walk

Visit the exhibition and then set off on a specially created walking tour of Maastricht and its surroundings. All group members enter the museum at the same time and have the freedom to explore the exhibition independently and at their own pace. In addition, with a beautiful walking booklet full of instructions, you will set off independently to discover Maastricht and its surroundings in a sensory way.

Rate: Admission per visitor plus the price of a walking guide. We recommend one guide per two hikers.

Walks:

- Wanderbuch by Birgit Bertram and Guus van Engelshoven (booklet for 2-4 people, €20)
- In search of Lost Time by Sanne Vaassen (booklet for 2-4 people, €22,50)

3. Full Senses Group Visit

The Full Senses Group Visit is the most comprehensive package offered by Marres, especially suitable for large groups. Reception and guidance by our education staff. You will receive not only a guided tour, but also a walk of your choice* and a workshop focused on the senses. Possible up to a group of 20 people (larger groups by arrangement).

Fee: Admission per visitor plus cost of tour guide and workshop (per 15 visitors €120) plus price of walking guide.

We offer the following walks* for our Full Senses Package.

- Wanderbuch by Birgit Bertram and Guus van Engelshoven (booklet for 2-4 people, €20)
- In search of Lost Time by Sanne Vaassen (booklet for 2-4 people, €22,50)
- Maastricht Tracks by David Helbich (per person, €20 excluding headphone deposit)

*Walks

In recent years, Marres has developed several walks in collaboration with various artists.

The Wanderbuch tour follows in the footsteps of the traveling craftsman and takes you to the Dutch-German border region, where you will learn about local crafts and traditions.

Artist Sanne Vaassen created In Search of Lost Time, a walk during which you will journey into Maastricht's past by discovering the scent of herbs, flowers, and extracts.

David Helbich's active and slightly surreal audio tour Maastricht Tracks takes you on a journey to special places in the heart of the city.

All these walks are self-guided.
